Presenters and Panelists

Amy Clements-Cortes, PhD, RP, MTA, MT-BC, FAMI
Dr. Clements-Cortes is Assistant Professor, University of Toronto, Faculty of Music, Music Therapy Instructor & Graduate Supervisor, Wilfrid Laurier University, and Academic Coordinator Ryerson Chang School and Instructor. She is a Registered Psychotherapist and a certified music therapist.

Andrea Lamont, RP, MTA
Andrea works at Holland Bloorview Kids Rehabilitation Hospital, Toronto, as a Music Therapist, with additional duties as Clinical Team Investigator and Clinical Education Liaison. In addition, Andrea teaches and provides clinical supervision for the graduate music therapy program at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo. Recently, Andrea was awarded the Meritorious Service Cross (Civil Division) as part of the Holland Bloorview team that created the Virtual Music Instrument.

Sarah Pearson, MMT, RP, MTA
Since completing her MMT at Laurier in 2013, Sarah has been working primarily in palliative care and oncology at Grand River Hospital, as well as in outpatient mental health. Recently, Sarah has been growing a small private practice in the community, working primarily with clients wanting to improve their wellness through the lens of creative self-expression. Sarah is a clinical supervisor, a working musician, and a singer-songwriter with a Waterloo Arts Fund grant under her belt.

Michelle Song, MMT, RP, MTA
Michelle is a clinical supervisor supporting arts-based psychotherapists in a day treatment program for children and youths with developmental disabilities and mental health challenges. In addition to mentoring and contributing to the professional development of the therapists she supervises, she collaborates with professionals in health care, education, social services, and management on complex cases. She has served as the Government Issues Chair for MTAO and as a Steering Committee Member for Ontario Alliance of Mental Health Practitioners.

SarahRose Black, MA, MMT, RP, MTA, PhD (Candidate)
SarahRose is an accredited music therapist and registered psychotherapist, working at The Princess Margaret Cancer Centre and Kensington Hospice in Toronto. SarahRose's clinical and research specializations include music psychotherapy for people with advanced cancer. She is a PhD candidate at the University of Toronto, focusing her research on music, empathy, and medical assistance in dying.

Janel Morphy, BMT, MTA, MT-BC, NMT
Janel owns and operates Axon Music Therapy which provides music therapy services to private clients in Cambridge, Kitchener-Waterloo, Guelph and surrounding areas. Janel graduated from Wilfrid Laurier University (WLU) in 2016 with a Bachelors of Music Therapy and is a Board-Certified Music Therapist. She completed her 1000 hour internship at Sunnyside Senior Services, working on long-term care and rehabilitation teams and completed the Neurologic Music Therapy (NMT) in 2016. Currently, Janel also teaches private piano lessons specializing in teaching beginners and adapted music lessons.

Daniel Allen, MTA MT-BC
Danny Allen completed his undergraduate training in music therapy at Wilfrid Laurier University in 2014, and became accredited in 2015 following successful completion of the CBMT exam. He is the owner and director of Allen Music Therapy, and provides studio and in-home sessions throughout Waterloo Region. Outside of clinical work, he is also currently enrolled in the one year Master of Music Therapy program at Wilfrid Laurier University. Daniel's primary instruments are guitar and trombone, and he is passionate about studying performance and improvisation techniques on each of them.

Adrianna Crusoe, BMT, MTA-R/I
Adrianna graduated from Wilfrid Laurier University's Bachelor of Music Therapy program in 2014. Upon completing her degree, she pursued an internship at St. Joseph's Health Centre in Guelph, working in Long-Term Care and in the Alzheimer's Day Centre. Adrianna successfully completed the CBMT exam in June 2015. After receiving MTA status, Adrianna practiced music therapy with older adults in Guelph and Hamilton. Recently, Adrianna has begun her Masters of Business Administration at Laurier.

Chantelle Whiteside, MA, MTA, MT-BC, NMT
Chantelle holds her Master of Arts in Music Therapy (MA) from Berklee College of Music, with a focus in Conventional and Integrative Medicine. Previously, she attained her Bachelor of Music Therapy (BMT) from Wilfrid Laurier University where she majored in violin and minored in psychology. In 2015, Chantelle became a certified Neurologic Music Therapist (NMT). Chantelle currently provides music therapy in long-term care and paediatrics, teaches standard and adapted music lessons, performs as a freelance musician, and supervises music therapy students at Wilfrid Laurier University.
